Islamic Finance and Sukuk Training Course

Introduction

Islamic finance is a major part of the Gulf financial system and is growing worldwide, from banking and takaful to sukuk issued by governments and corporates. Professionals need to understand its principles, products and the standards that govern them.

This course explains the foundations of Islamic finance, the main financing and investment contracts, sukuk structures and markets, risk management, Shariah governance and the accounting standards issued by AAOIFI, alongside IFRS.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Explain the principles of Islamic finance
- Describe the main Islamic contracts and their uses
- Understand Islamic banking products and operations
- Analyse common sukuk structures and the sukuk market
- Apply Shariah governance and risk management concepts
- Understand AAOIFI standards and IFRS considerations

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants analyse product structures and real sukuk issuances through case studies.
