Hospital Accreditation Readiness Training Course

Introduction

Accreditation, whether international or national, demonstrates that a healthcare organisation meets recognised standards of quality and safety. Preparing for accreditation is a major organisational effort that requires planning, evidence and staff engagement.

This course guides participants through accreditation preparation: understanding standards, gap analysis, policies, tracer methodology, mock surveys and sustaining compliance after the survey.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the structure of accreditation standards
- Conduct a gap analysis against standards
- Develop policies, procedures and evidence
- Use tracer methodology and mock surveys
- Engage staff and leaders in readiness
- Sustain continuous compliance

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants perform tracer exercises and gap analyses using sample standards.
