Inclusive Recruitment and Talent Practices Training Course

Introduction

Bias can enter every stage of recruitment and talent management, from job adverts and CV screening to interviews, promotions and pay decisions. The result is lost talent and less diverse teams.

This course gives HR professionals and hiring managers practical techniques to make recruitment, selection, development and promotion fairer and more inclusive.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Recognise bias in recruitment and talent decisions
- Write inclusive job descriptions and adverts
- Use structured, fair selection methods
- Design inclusive promotion and development processes
- Review pay equity
- Measure diversity across the talent pipeline

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants rewrite job adverts, practise structured interviews and review talent data.

Benefits for Your Organisation

- Larger, more diverse candidate pools
- Fairer, better hiring decisions
- Improved retention and engagement
- Lower legal and reputational risk
