Nursing Leadership and Management Training Course

Introduction

Nurse leaders are essential to quality patient care, staff wellbeing and efficient hospital operations. Moving from clinical practice into leadership requires new skills in managing people, resources, quality and change.

This programme develops nursing leadership and management skills, including leadership styles, staffing, team development, quality, communication and change management.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Develop personal leadership skills as a nurse leader
- Manage staffing, scheduling and resources
- Lead and develop nursing teams
- Drive quality and patient safety in nursing units
- Communicate effectively with staff, patients and physicians
- Lead change in clinical settings

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants work on real nursing management scenarios and develop a unit improvement plan.
