Legal Risk Management for In-House Counsel Training Course

Introduction

In-house legal teams are expected to do more than review contracts: they must identify legal risks early, support strategy, manage external lawyers and help the business move quickly without unnecessary exposure.

This course provides a practical framework for legal risk management and for running an efficient, valued in-house legal function, including risk registers, policies, contract management, litigation management and legal technology.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify, assess and prioritise legal risks
- Build a legal risk register and reporting process
- Design policies and controls that reduce legal exposure
- Manage contracts, litigation and external counsel efficiently
- Use legal technology and AI responsibly
- Communicate legal advice in business terms

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants build a legal risk register for a case company and practise presenting advice to management.
