Waqf and Islamic Social Finance for Non-Profits Training Course

Introduction

Islamic social finance, including zakat, sadaqah and waqf, is a powerful and growing source of funding for social impact in the Gulf and the wider Muslim world. Modern waqf structures and endowments can provide sustainable, long-term income for charitable purposes.

This course explains the principles of Islamic social finance and how non-profits and foundations can establish, manage and grow waqf and zakat programmes transparently and in line with Shariah and regulation.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Explain zakat, sadaqah and waqf principles
- Understand regulation of Islamic social finance in the Gulf
- Design waqf and endowment structures
- Manage and invest endowment assets responsibly
- Run compliant zakat programmes
- Report impact and maintain donor trust

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants study regional waqf models and design an endowment proposal.
