Building a PPP Unit: Institutional Frameworks Training Course

Introduction

Successful PPP programmes rely on strong institutions: a clear legal framework, a capable PPP unit, robust approval processes and fiscal controls. Many Gulf countries have created PPP laws and units in recent years and continue to develop them.

This course explains how to design and strengthen PPP institutional frameworks, from legislation and governance to project pipelines, fiscal management and capacity building.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the elements of a PPP institutional framework
- Compare PPP laws and units in the region and internationally
- Design PPP governance and approval processes
- Build and prioritise a PPP project pipeline
- Manage fiscal commitments and contingent liabilities
- Develop PPP capabilities across government

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants compare international PPP frameworks and design improvements for their own context.
