Corporate Brand and Reputation Management Training Course

Introduction

A strong corporate reputation attracts customers, talent, partners and investors, and helps organisations survive crises. Reputation is built through consistent behaviour, communication and brand experience.

This course covers corporate brand strategy, reputation drivers, stakeholder perceptions, reputation risk, corporate responsibility and how to measure and manage reputation over time.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the drivers of corporate reputation
- Develop corporate brand identity and positioning
- Align behaviour, communication and brand experience
- Identify and manage reputation risks
- Use corporate responsibility to build trust
- Measure and report reputation

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants assess a company's reputation and build a reputation management plan.
