Tourism Destination Management and Marketing Training Course

Introduction

Tourism is a strategic growth sector across the Gulf, with new destinations, attractions and giga-projects competing for international and domestic visitors. Successful destinations combine strong product development, visitor experience and marketing.

This course explains destination management and marketing: strategy, stakeholder coordination, product development, visitor experience, branding, digital marketing and performance measurement.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand destination management principles
- Develop destination strategies and tourism products
- Coordinate public and private stakeholders
- Design memorable visitor experiences
- Brand and market destinations
- Measure destination performance

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants analyse regional destination cases and develop a destination marketing plan.
