Government Excellence and the EFQM Model Training Course

Introduction

Excellence models and awards play a major role in Gulf government performance, from national excellence programmes to quality awards in the private sector. Many of these awards are based on, or inspired by, the EFQM Model.

This course explains the EFQM Model and the main Gulf excellence frameworks, and shows how to assess an organisation, write award submissions, collect evidence and use excellence to drive real improvement in strategy, people, services and results.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Explain the EFQM Model and the main Gulf excellence frameworks
- Conduct a self-assessment against excellence criteria
- Use the RADAR logic to evaluate approaches and results
- Identify strengths and improvement priorities
- Prepare evidence and award submissions
- Lead an excellence programme in their organisation

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants assess a case organisation using RADAR and draft parts of an award submission.
