Commercial Agency, Distribution and Franchise Agreements Training Course

Introduction

Commercial agency, distribution and franchise agreements are the main routes for international brands to enter Gulf markets and for local companies to expand. Each country has specific laws on registration, exclusivity, compensation and termination.

This course explains how these agreements work, the key legal rules in the region, and how to negotiate and manage them to protect both principals and local partners.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Distinguish agency, distribution and franchise models
- Understand commercial agency laws in the Gulf
- Draft and negotiate key clauses
- Manage exclusivity, territory and performance targets
- Handle termination and compensation claims
- Manage relationships with agents and distributors

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants analyse sample agreements and negotiate key clauses in practical exercises.

Benefits for Your Organisation

- Well-structured market-entry agreements
- Reduced termination and compensation risk
