PPP Contract Management During Operations Training Course

Introduction

Signing a PPP contract is only the beginning. Over 20 to 30 years, the public authority must monitor performance, manage payments and deductions, handle changes and disputes, and prepare for handback.

This course gives contract managers the tools to manage PPP contracts effectively during construction and operations, ensuring the public receives the services it is paying for.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Set up a PPP contract management team and plan
- Monitor construction and operational performance
- Manage availability payments and deductions
- Handle variations, refinancing and change in law
- Resolve disputes and manage relationships
- Prepare for expiry and handback

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants calculate payment deductions and work through contract management scenarios.

Benefits for Your Organisation

- Services delivered to contract standards
- Correct payments and deductions
- Fewer disputes and costly renegotiations
- Protection of public assets at handback
