Social Media for Corporate Communication Training Course

Introduction

Official social media accounts are now the main way many organisations communicate with the public. Managing them well requires strategy, good content, fast responses, clear governance and awareness of legal and reputational risks.

This course covers social media strategy for corporate and government accounts, content planning, community management, governance and measurement.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this course, participants will be able to:

- Build a social media strategy for an organisation
- Plan engaging content for each platform
- Manage communities and respond to the public
- Set governance, approval and security rules
- Handle negative comments and social media crises
- Measure social media performance

Training Methodology

This course combines short expert presentations with practical exercises, case studies from the Gulf and international organisations, group discussions and work with real templates and tools. Participants are encouraged to bring examples from their own work so that the learning can be applied immediately.

Participants build a content calendar and practise responding to real-world comment scenarios.

Benefits for Your Organisation

- Professional, consistent social media presence
